Springfield, Ill., Nov. 6. - Because ten grains were jarred loose from an ear of corn being shipped to an Illinois point, D. Pascal, of Clinton, Ia., asks $500 damages from the American Express company. Pascal alleges the ear, which was the world's champion ear of Reid's yellow corn, was shipped for exhibition purposes and had been carefully packed, but the company was careless in its handling. The loss of a single grain will bar the ear from competition for prizes in corn exhibits.

Chillicothe, Mo., Nov. 6. - Two years ago a stock publication of Des Moines, Iowa offered a prize of $1,000 for an ear of corn on which there were fifteen rows of fully developed kernels. C E Elley, secretary of the Republican country central committee, brought into the office of a local newspaper an ear of corn that answers all requirements and has wired his claim to the reward. Several other leading stock papers have offered similar rewards and Mr Elley stands a chance to win several thousand dollars. The "prize" ear of corn was raised on Mr Elley's farm, a short distance from Chillicothe, and was discovered when an employe was about to feed it to stock. Corn experts have tried for years to find an ear with odd rows but it is the first one found.

What do you think of this, coming so quickly on the heels of the announced election of Taft?

La Crosse, Wis., Nov. 5. - Officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad have announced that all improvement work would be suspended and at the same time announced a reduction of the wages of section hands to $1.25 a day. The order, following so soon on the election of Taft, has caused many comments by democratic leaders here.

The new "advance agent" seems to be getting in his work after the same fashion as the last false prophet did. -Carthage Democrat.

Corn Show.

Now for the Corn Show. It is the farmers show and they will show the natives and strangers what corn is and that Korn is King.

Remember, select one well finished ear and then nine more just as near like it and bring it to the Democrat office so it can be regularly entered.

If you have both the white and yellow, bring both kinds and show the world at large what Missouri does even in the wet seasons.

The main object in the corn show is to cause a friendly rivalry among the farmers so as to cause a production of more corn to the acre and a better quality of corn, or to cause the grand old state to be the first corn state or producer of corn in the Union.

Bring your corn in any time after Saturday and up to and including Saturday Nov. 28, at which date the entries will close.

The premiums will be, $5 each for best white and yellow, $2.50 each for second best and one years subscription to the Monroe City Democrat on each third best.

Now don't say: There's no money in it for me, because there is. We do not mean that the $5, $2.50 or subscription of the paper will pay you for trouble and corn, but we do say: It will prove that the Missouri farmer is progressive, prove that he wants to raise the best and is willing to learn from other farmers what is the best, how to get the seed and how to cultivate to get desired results. And in that way you will be paid an hundred fold for your trouble for it will mean larger production per acre and greater returns for you.

Now one and all, let us see how large a number of entries there can be so as to see how great success the Show can be made.

Big Fire Monday Morning.

The fire department was called to Centenary academy this morning (Monday) about 8:45. The fire had gained quite a headway before it was discovered, as school had not opened. The fire company responded promptly and worked heroically but could not save the building. It is thought to have started from the furnace, as it had not been working satisfactorily. The loss is about $5,000. For the present Prof. Lanius will use the city hall for school purposes. The houses of Dr. Harrison and Aug. Pollman, next to the school, caught fire from sparks, but by quick work were soon extinguished. -Hannibal Journal.

HADLEYISM

Bearing Fruit. What Will The Harvest Be?

There was something doing on the Wabash accommodation from St. Louis last night just before it pulled into Centralia. A crowd of about fifteen negroes, all loaded to the gills, boarded the train at Mexico and went into the smoker where there were several white men. They had not been on the train long when they became boisterous and one of the white men called them down. At that time there was a big negro buck standing in the aisle of the train cursing and raising Cain in general. When a white passenger told him to stop the noise all of his bunch got in and told him to stay there as long as he wanted to and make all the noise he could. About that time Sheriff W. G. Houston, who was returning from Jefferson City, appeared on the scene and a warm fight followed. The negro still refused to stop his noise so the sheriff flew into him with his fists. He had to almost beat the negro's head into a jelly before he would give in and after he had partially conquered him the rest of the bunch got smart and Mr. Huston had to show them their place. When the train stopped at Centralia the negro made an effort to get away from the sheriff and another good beating was administered to him after which he was willing to come to Moberly without any more trouble. At Centralia fully twenty people shook hands with Mr. Huston, congratulating him upon his bravery and the manner in which he corralled the bunch, which has a reputation of being bad.

It takes some nerve to go into a bunch of fifteen or twenty negroes lone handed, especially when they are all "shot" but Sheriff Huston went after them like he meant business and after a ten-minute fight he had them under control. He sustained a severely mashed finger in the wrangle and is deserving of much praise for his good work.

He brought the negro to Moberly and locked him in jail where he will be kept until Monday at which time he will be turned over to Wabash secret service agent, Harry Hutton.

This wrangle right after the Republican victory looks as if the negroes are starting rather soon. - Moberly Democrat.
